HUGO'S FROG BAR AND FISH HOUSE

Hugo's Frog Bar is one of Naperville's best known hot spots for delicious food, a great atmosphere and good fun. Hugo's itself is an extension of Gibsons in Chicago. Opened in 1997, the owners wanted to bring the finest seafood to the city to compliment the finest steaks next door.

The name Hugo's Frog Bar came from co-owner Hugo Ralli's Grandfather, General Bruce Hay of Her Majesty's Imperial Forces, whose nickname happened to be "Frog". His portrait hangs over the bar, complete in uniform.

Hugo's has been delighting patrons in Naperville since 2004 where the locals have come to know it as a place they can come to unwind, get a great martini, and an even better meal. It is located between some of the most popular stores downtown. Shoppers frequent the restaurant as it is the perfect end to a day downtown.

The staff at Hugo's listens to customers' needs as diners. "It's easy to keep track of what they want out of a restaurant and what they want out of a dining experience if they keep giving us feedback" says General Manager, Anthony Losurdo. "Luckily, we're able to implement suggestions, and we know it's appreciated because they keep coming back and bringing their friends, who bring their friends, and so on and so forth."

"The Main Street Promenade is like the social hub of downtown Naperville. There isn't a better place to be!" ~ Anthony Losurdo

The staff at Hugo's enjoys the opportunity to develop a personal rapport with their customers. Being in the middle of all the action with the various events downtown, such as sidewalk sales and parades, Hugo's popularity has skyrocketed. The restaurant has been the kickoff location for Girl's Weekend for the past two years, participated in Halloween festivities, the tree lighting and soon will be hosting the Promenade's fashion show.

Losurdo can't say enough about being located in downtown Naperville. "It's a big city mentality with a small town vibe. We have five star restaurants, high end retailers, and yet you can still stroll down the Riverwalk with your dog and a cup of coffee" he says. "We have all of the amenities of a big city, but the personality of Naperville is still very nostalgic and friendly. You can't get that everywhere."
